

Summer is usually the prime time for road construction, but some ongoing projects will affect Northern Colorado traffic this fall as well as next spring and summer. Here's a look at projects in the works or planned for the near future:

Northern Colorado Road Construction Projects

Community	Project	Construction timeline
FORT COLLINS	Widening West Harmony Road to 4 lanes with bike lanes, sidewalks and turn lanes where necessary from Seneca Street to railroad tracks west of South College Avenue	Spring - Fall '08
	Widening of East Harmony Road to 6 lanes from railroad tracks west of Timberline Road to east of Ziegler Road, & widening of Ziegler to 4 lanes from Harmony to Horsetooth Road	June - mid-October '07 and May - July '08
GREELEY	Replacing water main along U.S. Business 34 from 71 st Avenue to 83 rd Avenue	January - May '08
	Widening U.S. Business 34 from 2 lanes to 4 lanes from 71 st Avenue to Colorado 257	Major work done Summer '08 - December '09
LOVELAND	Widening Crossroads Boulevard to 4 lanes from east of I-25 to east of Larimer County Road 5	Spring - mid-September '07
	Extending Larimer County Road 5 from Crossroads to Kendall Parkway in Centerra	Fall '06 - October '07
	Widening Fairgrounds Avenue to 4 lanes from Crossroads to Rodeo Drive in Eagle Crossing	Spring - mid-September '07
	Repaving of U.S. 34/Eisenhower Boulevard west of I-25 to Monroe Avenue	April - late November '07
WINDSOR	Relocating the I-25/Colorado 392 northbound off-ramp, widening off-ramps to 2 lanes and adding left-hand turn lanes from Colorado 392 onto I-25	July - mid-October '07
AULT	Adding left turn lanes from Colorado 14 onto Weld County Road 33	Mid-July - October '07